

WELL BEING FOUNDATION

Creating Ripples of Sustainable Change

Representative Policy

WELL BEING FOUNDATION is committed to ensuring that all individuals representing the organization uphold the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, ethics, and accountability. This policy applies to all trustees, employees, volunteers, consultants, ambassadors, partners, and any other individuals authorized to act or speak on behalf of the Foundation.

Representatives shall protect the reputation, credibility, and interests of the Foundation by avoiding misconduct, discrimination, harassment, conflicts of interest, misuse of authority, or unauthorized use of organizational resources, information, logos, or branding. Confidential information obtained during the course of work must not be disclosed without proper authorization.

Only authorized individuals may make official statements, commitments, agreements, or public representations on behalf of the organization. Representatives are expected to communicate accurately, respectfully, and professionally in all forms of interaction, including social media and public events.

Any violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, termination of association, or legal action where applicable. WELL BEING FOUNDATION is committed to promoting responsible representation that reflects its values, mission, and commitment to social welfare.
